Introduction

Madang is a Korean term that denotes a courtyard in a traditional Korean home. The madang serves as a space for encounter and sharing, and this assembly gives us the opportunity to experience the ecumenical fellowship of churches in all its richness and diversity. Whether exploring exhibitions, participating in side events or enjoying performances of theatre, music and culture—we are all invited to join in the fun and truly experience everything that the madang has to offer us!

Disciples of Christ – Disciples Women Christian Church

When: 30.10.2013 13.15-13.50

Where: Performance stage

Description of the side event:

The play addresses an important issue. Human trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery in which people, mostly women and children, are abducted and/or forced to labour for someone else against their wishes. Human trafficking includes buying, selling and moving people from one location to another against their will, and it constitutes a grave violation of human rights. It occurs all over the world. The play unfolds the story through the lives of four unique women: Asian, African American, Hispanic and Anglo. The purpose is to use drama to awaken all to an issue that affects our global community.

Birth at the Checkpoint

When: 01.11.2013 18.00-19.00

Where: EAPPI, Booth 71

Description of the side event:

Over the last forty one years of the military occupation of Palestinian land, Israel has implemented a policy of movement restrictions including checkpoints, earth mounds, trenches, gates, roadblocks, bypass roads, the Wall, and a complex system of permits. Restrictions on the freedom of movement of Palestinians have seriously affected their access to medical care, including emergency medical treatment. The ability to reach medical care and healthcare is very uncertain and depends on a number of arbitrary decisions and restrictions. Soldiers at checkpoints consistently stop ambulances and patients. The Palestinian Red Crescent Society has reported 112 deaths and 35 stillbirths as a result of preventing medical personnel and patients from crossing checkpoints. Come to get informed and to talk about this critical issue with Dr Muna Mushahwar, co-chairperson of the Palestine Israel Ecumenical Forum (PIEF) and a practicing physician in an Israeli Hospital in Jerusalem.

The Courage to Be One

Continuation Committee Uniting and United Churches

When: 04.11.2013 12.30-14.00

Where: Madang meeting room 2, Booth 35

Description of the side event:

At least nearly 40 WCC member churches have taken unity so seriously that they are the result of a unification process. Many others are involved in similar processes. Most of these churches are loyal members of different Christian World Communions: this constitutes a privilege as well as a burden. This side event provides room for sharing experiences, identifying challenges and – most of all – encouraging each other to have the courage to be one! The meeting will include the harvesting of ideas for closer cooperation on the way to the 11th WCC assembly.

Water for Peace: Sharing of Water by Religious Leaders

Palestinian Children and the Right to Education

When: 04.11.2013 18.00-19.00

Where: EAPPI, Booth 71

Description of the side event:

Every year, when over a million children return to school in Palestine occupied territories, an unacceptable number of them face long and precarious journeys to schools ill-equipped to receive them. Over 10,000 children start their school year in tents, caravans, or tin shacks and at least one third of government schools in these areas have poor and inadequate water and sanitation facilities. More than 226,000 children and over 9,300 teachers are unable to reach their regular classrooms and at least 580 schools have been closed due to Israeli military curfews, closures and home confinement. UNICEF has said Israel has an obligation to ensure education is accessible to every Palestinian child, in accordance with the 4th Geneva Convention and the Convention on the Rights of the Child. Come to get informed and to talk about this critical issue with Mr Adli Daana, UNICEF Learning for Development Officer.

Statelessness and the Impact on Women

American Baptist Home Mission Societies

When: 05.11.2013 12.30-14.00

Where: Madang Meeting Room 1, Booth 36

Description of the side event:

Stateless women are often subjected to employment inequities, sexual assault, lack of adequate healthcare and struggle to care for their children in the country where they migrated seeking a better life. This side event will look at the global issue of statelessness and the impact on the most vulnerable and silent majority: women and children. Participants will get an overview of the history, causes and effect of statelessness among immigrant women and children from three perspectives: Bangladesh, Myanmar and North America/Caribbean/Mexico and discuss practical steps that can be taken as people of faith to create a more just society for the least among us.

Arbitrary Use of Violence against Palestinian Children

When: 05.11.2013 18.00-19.00

Where: EAPPI, Booth 71

Description of the side event:

A United Nations report released this June affirms that "Palestinian children arrested by (Israeli) military and police are systematically subject to degrading treatment, and often to acts of torture, are interrogated in Hebrew, a language they did not understand, and sign confessions in Hebrew in order to be released." The report by its 18 independent experts acknowledged Israel's national security concerns and noted that children on both sides of the conflict continue to be killed and wounded, but that more casualties are Palestinian. Most Palestinian children arrested are accused of throwing stones, which can carry a penalty of up to 20 years in prison. During the past 10 years, an estimated 7,000 Palestinian children aged 12 to 17, but some as young as nine, had been arrested, interrogated and detained. Come to get informed and to talk about this critical issue with Mr Rifat Kassis, president of the executive council of Defence for Children International (DCI).

Hawaiian Hula: Once Banned, Now Embraced

United Church of Christ

When: 06.11.2013 13.15-13.45

Where: Performance stage

Description of the side event:

The first missionaries to Hawai'i in the early 1800s banned hula (dance) because they feared that it was too suggestive and sensuous. This ancient art form, through which Hawaiians remembered and passed on their stories and myths, nearly died out until the Hawaiian cultural resurgence in the 1970s. Today, hula, both in ancient and modern forms, is practiced widely throughout the Hawaiian Islands as well as the continental U.S.A., Europe and Asia. This side exhibit, through videos and live performance, will demonstrate how hula interprets the "olelo," or the "Word" --the story underlying all humanity.

Creating Intergenerational SAFE Spaces for Responding to HIV, Human Rights and Sexual and Reproductive Health

WYWCA, EHAIA and EAA

When: 06.11.2013 15.45-16.45

Where: Madang meeting room 1, Booth 36

Description of the side event:

This interactive dialogue will examine the efforts of churches and ecumenical organizations to respond to HIV and AIDS, and particularly to address the stigma and discrimination faced by people living with HIV in communities. It will consider future responses, examining the intersections between human rights and theology, as well as some of the challenges facing young people in accessing sexual and reproductive health services in communities. Each dialogue will have a moderator who will introduce and facilitate discussion on the topic, pose questions to guest speakers and the audience. It will be an interactive environment designed to engage in dialogue across generations and to examine the role of the ecumenical family in advancing the topic. These dialogues will seek to look at practical ways of engaging young people of faith in this work, and bridging generational divides. Each session will have four guest speakers – two leaders from the ecumenical movement or churches and two young people. The audience will be encouraged to join the conversation and give additional insights into the topic.

Pilgrimages for Peace: An Alternative Way of Visiting the Holy Land

When: 07.11.2013 18.00-19.00

Where: EAPPI, Booth 71

Description of the side event:

Pilgrimages to the Holy Land are an enduring tradition for a variety of religions as the place has great significance for them all. For Christians, the Holy Land holds importance as the place where Jesus' birth, ministry, death and resurrection took place. Many Christian pilgrims appear not only ignorant of recent Middle East history but surprised to find an Arab Christian presence at all. Palestinian Christians invite Christian the world over to engage in a different type pilgrimage; to "Come and see" the truth of their reality. They will assure pilgrims of encounters through which they will come to know the facts about the people of the Holy Land – Palestinians and Israelis alike. Above all, they invite pilgrims to "say a word of truth and to take a position of truth with regard to Israel's occupation of Palestinian land." Come to get informed and to talk about this critical issue with Mr Rami Kassis, director of the Alternative Tourism Group.
